

report

vol.10 no.59

SEPTEMBER – OCTOBER 1986

Editor and Publisher Peter Lennox-Kerr

Published alternate months

The interface between traditional yarn production processes and the Future.

OUT OF THE MOUTH

'The technology is superb. Now we are having to learn how to engineer it and to manufacture it'. Comment on friction spinning made by Jim Eke, managing director, Platt Saco Lowell, speaking at the Federation of Textile Managers' Associations, Blackpool.